It is unnecessary in this con-am aware that by dwelling upon so painful a sub s the decay of mainly vigor through the loss of the principle of life, the ignorant may suppose my mo ive to be the desire to point out to those who have un fortunately become the victims of their affection, how t an incentive is to be forced into abeyance. How ap alling the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, so ong as the practical specialist who devotes his time to ts cure can tell; but its presence can be detected by ny one inexperienced by noting the following sympoms: Weakness of the back and limbs, loss of sight, oss of muscular power, nervousness, trembling

f hands, accompanied by hot head, confusion; short breath, flushing of the face, preipitancy, confusion of the mind, loss of mem-ry, self-distrust, cowardice, timidity, excitement, trembling palpitation of the heart, disase of the kidneys, variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause to consider, for upon it may depend your future happiness. Where is there a physician who can say with truth and honesty that the true cause of their affliction, has not been the result of a neglected boyhood? Have you not been incautious in your associations? Have you not been tempted by some companion, or by your own inexperience, to indulge in practices destructive of your future happiness? Have you not been induced to commit a secret act, the consequences of which you have since had reason to deplore? Have you not been led to believe that the terrible disease of Seminal Weakness is, so long as the practical specialist who devotes his time to its cure can tell; but its presence can be detected by any one inexperienced by noting the following symptoms: Weakness of the back and limbs, loss of sight, loss of muscular power, nervousness, trembling of hands, accompanied by hot head, confusion; short breath, flushing of the face, excitement, trembling palpitation of the heart, dizziness

Is not This True?

We ask any intelligent man in all this broad land whether the annexed sentences which we take from a late political speech are not the exact truth

The Democratic party has declared everything constitutional that helped the cause of every thing unconstitutional that hurt the Democrats In the commencement of the war they said States have a right to secede—that the Southern States were out of the Union They said this because they wanted to help the rebels Now they say that they had no right to secede and that they are in the Union because they want the rebels to help them During the entire war a Democrat with a musket was a rebel and a rebel without a musket was a Democrat The difference was not in the man but in the musket

Cannot the truth of all this be proved by the unimpeachable testimony of history? When President Lincoln called out 75,000 men in 1861 to quell the rebellion did not every Democrat declare the act unconstitutional? Later, when, owing to the misrepresentations of Democrats, the Government was unable to borrow a dollar, and had to make its notes a legal tender, were we not deafened with Democratic tirades in and out of Congress, against the power of the Government to do any such thing? Still later when it was proposed to fill up the depleted ranks of our armies by a draft, what a yell was raised, and some good Democrats even murdered scores of negroes in New York, though it was not apparent to common people how that would help the matter Yet again, when the question of enlisting free negroes was first agitated, every one remembers the denunciations of the Democratic orators and editors Finally, when Lincoln struck the grand blow which converted slaves of rebels into free loyal men, these same Democrats frantic ly exclaimed that all was over and the grand experiment of Republicanism a delusion and inserted in the platform on which McClellan was nominated, a plank to the effect that the war was a failure, and that unless a peaceful arrangement could be made there was no longer a Union, leaving a fair inference that if the rebels would not consent to restore the Union, the Democracy of the North would consent to its dissolution And these men who have persistently fought against every measure tending to strengthen the Government and weaken the rebels now pretend as the Oakland Transcript remarks, to have taken the Constitution into their exclusive keeping, and to be its only true defenders! Again we ask, is not the above quotation strictly true?

Financial Wisdom at Salem

Hon Tappertit Trevitt has done another smart thing In his resolution recommending that the bill to pay the bonds of the State in greenbacks do not pass he says

An attempt to pay a coin obligation in green backs would probably be held illegal by the courts, and only result in involving the State in law suits and costs, while it would exhibit an ineffectual attempt on the part of the State of Oregon to imitate the pernicious example of the National Congress which, by its laws, enables dishonest individuals to discharge gold contracts with depreciated paper.

Coming as this does from a Democratic source, and supported by Democratic votes, isn't it a gem of purest ray serene? The Democratic platform demands the payment of our national debt in "depreciated paper," and not only this, but George H Pendleton, and other leading Democrats are advocating the further issue of greenbacks for that and other purposes. And now the inflationist party in Oregon a resolution condemning the issue of a moderate amount of greenbacks at a time of great public necessity, as "pernicious" They denounce it as a dishonest act, though their party is pledged to pay the national debt in depreciated paper, and is advocating the continued issue of this same debased currency! We believe the Constitution of the State does not prohibit even members of the Legislature from making fools and asses of themselves

Price's Legislature

Alluding to the resolution adopted by our Ku-Klux Legislature, demanding the resignation of Senators Williams and Corbett the Polk County Signal says the Senators ought in honor to vacate their seats, in obedience to the wishes of the people who elected them! For cool impudence this remark can't be beat The people who elected the Senators are perfectly satisfied with the official action of these public servants Since they were elected some thousands of rebel carpet baggers have come into the State from Missouri and uniting with their fellow Democrats here have succeeded in carrying the State Now the simple question is, shall the Senators resign in obedience to the command of these vagabond rebels, many hundreds of whom openly boast that they carried arms to destroy the Government? We guess not There would be an inexcusable impropriety in resigning under such circumstances The Senators have some years yet to hold their seats, and by the time their terms expire we shall have an addition to our population from better classes than Price's rebels shall carry the State triumphantly, and keep good men in the Senate The majority of the Legislature elected by men who have escaped the gallows only through the clemency of the Government are riding a high horse indeed

The Railroad Quarrel

It is greatly to be regretted that so angry a controversy has arisen between the east and west side railroads on the subject of the land grant It is unfortunate for the State that the respective parties are wasting their strength fighting each other instead of pushing forward with their work as the interests of the State require We are among those who believe that the interests of the Willamette valley demand two roads and therefore we are anxious to see both roads built and can be partisans of neither Both are essential to the interests of this valley, since it must be obvious to every one that a road on one side of the river will be of little service to the other side But the controversy between them is plainly the result of a supposed antagonism which cannot be easily quieted Most people who are acquainted with the country know that the land grant through this valley is of little real value and that the party who buys it will obtain no great advantage thereby The quarrel therefore seems to have its origin mainly in the combative propensities of those who are conducting it

No Dodging!

Not long ago Seymour wrote a letter to his subordinates complaining of their manner of conducting the campaign censuring them for allowing the Republicans to dodge the financial issues and urging them to push these matters upon public attention Now the Republicans ought not to be allowed to dodge the financial issues Every one attempting to do so should have a broadside of hot shot from Horatio's speeches poured into him like the following from the speech delivered by the model statesman in the New York State Democratic Convention last March

It is a mistake to suppose that they (the bonds) are mostly held by capitalists Large sums belonging to widows and children under the order of courts or the action of trustees have been invested in Government bonds The vast amount held by fire and life insurance companies and savings banks are in fact held in trust for and are the reliance of, the active business, the enterprising men and women * * * The whole amount held in the State of New York in various forms of trust will not fall below $200,000,000 If we look into other States we shall see that only a small share of these bonds are held by men known as capitalists but they belong in fact to the farm to the business men the artizans and the laboring class of society. The destruction of these securities would make a wide spread ruin and distress which would reach into every workshop and every district, however humble

Lincoln and Grant

In the great speech lately delivered at Steubenville Ohio, by Edwin M Stanton the ex Secretary, related many things of Gen Grant which had never before met the public ear The intimate relations which existed so long between the two men gave each a thorough knowledge of the other In his Steubenville speech Stanton eulogized Grant as a man of transcendant abilities and ascribed to him the honor of bringing the war to a successful close He read the following letter to show how Grant stood at the last Presidential election

CITY POINT, Nov 10 1864

To E M Stanton, Secretary of War

Enough now seems to be known to say who is hold the reins of Government for the next four years Congratulate the President for his fourth victory The election having passed off quietly with no bad orders or riots throughout the land is a victory worth more to the advancement than a battle won Rebellion and Europe will construe it so U S GRANT
Lieutenant General

'Tis said that Pendleton while stumping Maine, gave the people such a glowing account of their condition growing out of the war that on that the old Democratic party never ever hoped having the honors, and that treasuring their finances They were in such a state that all was well when suddenly they discovered that the savings banks and banks of deposit were and a half millions of dollars more than they had two years ago Even Maine went 20,000 majority for the Republican ticket an increase in previous years

Conservative old Democrats are held in high esteem by the ex rebels of the South They march in procession and sit side by side with white men and no one is offended Our "black fellow citizens" are very well as long as they promise to vote the Copperhead ticket The Republican niggers are the ones who stink

Richard C Morris, one of the founders of the New York Observer, died in Germany on the 22d September

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM Monday, Oct 12, 1868

IN THE HOUSE

Mr Chapman presented a petition from A B Dennison, asking an appropriation to pay him for recruiting a cavalry company in 1861 This claim has, I think, been before the Legislature once or twice before, and rejected The petition or may be more fortunate this time The bill to create a Department of Statistics, Immigration and Labor Exchange was up, on a report from a Select Committee who proposed some amendments An amendment to locate the Secretary's office at Salem instead of Portland, was lost An amendment to make the Secretary elective by the Legislature, was lost There seems to be an impression that the establishment will be expensive and onerous, and the fate of the bill is somewhat doubtful The greater part of the session thus far has been talked away. To day, however, gag was applied in the shape of a resolution restricting speakers to ten minutes each Mr Jackson introduced a bill to provide for payment of bounties for scalps of wolves, wild cats, squirrels, etc A resolution was adopted instructing the House members of the Joint Committee on the Insane Asylum, to report at 10½ o'clock Wednesday, all the proposals for keeping the insane and for building a wing of the main building. Mr Beers introduced a bill to define the boundaries of Baker county Alexander, of Linn—a bill to create the office of State healer of weights and measures

In the afternoon, the petition of the State Agricultural Society for aid in collecting and publishing statistics, was taken up and referred to a Special Committee—Minto Chapman and Butler Mr Chapman introduced a bill to provide for the purchase of 200 volumes of the 2d Oregon Reports It provides that each member of the Legislature shall have a copy About a dozen of them might possibly have use at some time for the volume Alexander, of Linn, gave notice of a bill to provide for locks and a canal around the Willamette Falls at Oregon City Bellinger offered a memorial to Congress for an appropriation for a lighthouse at Yaquina Bay On the bill to make the Superintendent of the Penitentiary elective by the Legislature, Gilfrey said he had been informed that abuses had been practised by the Superintendent He had disbursed money from his own pocket without a warrant being drawn on the Treasurer for the same How this could have been an "abuse" is hard to see, though Mr Gilfrey may be able to see it If the superintendent paid money out of his own pocket for the State he did it, certainly, at his own risk The State could not have been in any jeopardy Mr Davenport administered a rebuke to the practice of fulminating charges in the House, against State officers, upon mere rumor The bill was passed The bill providing an appropriation to purchase the Garner shackles was passed.

IN THE SENATE

The bill giving assent of the State to the purchase by the United States of site for U S Court postoffice, etc, at Portland and ceding jurisdiction over the same was passed It had already passed the House, Mr Stout introduced a bill to provide for reimbursements of costs in certain suits among heirs for recovery of estates A bill introduced by Mr Herman to incorporate Roseburg Academy, was rejected for the reason that the Odd Fellows charter specialize corporation acts Herman introduced a bill providing for an increased number of laws and journals of this and subsequent sessions Remainder of afternoon spent in 2d reading of bills

In the afternoon, Chapman's railroad memorial with the reports of the majority and minority of the Railroad Committee, was taken up An amendment specifying certain ways between the termini, and another adding an immaterial paragraph, were adopted and the memorial was passed The bill to amend the act to protect Chinamen and the bill repealing the Multnomah county $239 65 fine from that county a State tax, were passed The Senate bill to grant assent of the State to purchase of site for public buildings at Astoria and Dallas, was amended in the House by striking out the provision for Portland (already provided for in a House bill) and when it came back this afternoon the Senate concurred in the amendment, so the bill has passed both houses A message was received from the House stating its concurrence in Senate amendments to the memorial for a mail route from Louisville in Polk county to Yaquina Bay so the memorial goes The Senate received Gazley's railroad memorial and referred it to the Railroad Committee The House joint resolution instructing the joint committee on the Insane Asylum to report all proposals received together with all the proposals now in possession of the Senate, was referred to the Committee of the Whole, and made the special order for to morrow at half past ten o'clock It is almost certain that the subject will occupy the greater part of the week

This is a brief letter, but I do not know what I could have made it longer with out penning a yarn or a homily The transactions of the two houses to day have been of rather a business character and as uninteresting as a sermon on baptism

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Sept 19TH 1868

CONGRESS IN SESSION

At 12 o'clock last Monday when the Senate was called thirty four Senators answered to their names—exactly a quorum A resolution was then passed—13 to 11 (Buckalew in the negative) to adjourn until the 16th of October (which will be unless otherwise ordered until the 14th of November and then unless heretofore directed on the first Monday in December) immediately after passing the House passed a similar resolution, without a call of the roll to ascertain whether a quorum was present in one minute, a call not a Democrat responding in the hall at the time In a moment Brooks came in and objected to long business without a quorum But he was out of the reach before having passed before he help out of order was raised As well was then ordered that no bill not incidental to a work to hear names the Democrats refused to respond, namely Brooks Hodge Boyer Phelps Hogan and Randall This was only 100 members who were required till Brooks appeared Without quorum Without transacting any other business and after a session of about one hour, both houses adjourned on that evening and the following morning most of the Senators and members depart for their respective homes, many of them to take an active part in the great political campaign now going on Congress will not convene again before the first Monday in December, at which session is recommended by Morgan and Schenck as on the present occasion It is not expected that a session will be held in October but it is barely possible that a quorum for the session will assemble in the 10th November and be ready for the regular business session on catching up the first Monday in December when the regular session will commence and continue until the 4th of March next

FOR BAIL

Have had to be making a great game here in all the principal cities of the United States Small and large gold speculations of all the leading brokers and the gamesters are very much pleased by the result of people The Democratic club of Cincinnati Ohio, is now out of the Democratic ranks by the new and Democratic club of this city and the Democratic Union Club of Philadelphia and New York

TRIAL OF JEFF DAVIS

The trial of Jeff Davis on a charge of being an accessory before the fact of Abraham Lincoln's assassination, Payne, Mudge, Surratt, and others, for the murder of President Lincoln, will commence in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, on the first Monday in November, and the trial will continue from day to day, Sundays excepted, until completed The indictment against Surratt charges an offence committed on the 6th of March, 1865, in relation to the force the indictment was found by the grand jury Under this clause of the act of last Congress Judge Wylie decided that the indictment was barred by the statute of limitations, and discharged the prisoner The prosecution argued that as the statute provides that it shall not extend to any person or persons fleeing from justice it cannot apply to Surratt, who fled from the country and on that ground they appeal from the decision of the court

DEFALCATION IN THE GENERAL POST OFFICE

The Disbursing Clerk in the Post Office Department, C J B Olmstead, after appropriating to his own use and squandering a large amount of the public funds, absconded a few days ago Detectives are upon his track, but have not succeeded in arresting him yet When last seen he was traveling on foot near Rock Creek, a short distance out from Georgetown, disguised in a slouched hat and a soldier's overcoat the amount of the defalcation is not definitely known but it is supposed to be quite large probably $40,000

THE INTERNAL REVENUE IRREGULITIES

Of the 25 Supervisors of Internal Revenue under the new tax law, only one, for Missouri and district joining it on the west, has yet been appointed During this week sub committees on Retrenchment has been examining into the causes why these appointments have not been made, and on Tuesday had a meeting at the Treasury Secretary McCulloch and Commissioner Rollins were both brought before the committee and examined Their evidence elicited the fact that the whole fault of the non appointment of Supervisors rests with the Secretary of the Treasury and the President soon after the law passed, Mr Rollins made all the appointments, and Mr McCulloch was willing to confirm a majority of them but the President interfered and requested him not to do so unless half the number were Democrats Rollins refused to enter into any such an arrangement and then the President and his Copperhead allies commenced a war upon the Commissioner and have ever since been doing everything in their power to get him out Office Rollins has the legal power of appointing Supervisors but his acts must be confirmed by Secretary McCulloch and the President steps in and dictates to him Mr McCulloch expresses entire confidence in the integrity of Commissioner Rollins, and takes no part in the war that the President and his rebel friends are waging against him

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC OUTRAGE

Last Saturday the Seymour Democracy attacked a Republican meeting at Camilla Georgia and killed and wounded about fifty persons among the latter the Republican candidate for Congress Similar outrages are perpetrated in the South almost daily Gen Meade has gone to Camilla to investigate this Democratic massacre

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION

Last Tuesday night the Republicans had one of the most imposing political demonstrations ever witnessed in the National Capital Notwithstanding the fact that a heavy rain was falling about 12,000 people assembled around the Executive mansion, where the procession formed For two thousand torches were in the procession illuminating Pennsylvania Avenue and the principal streets through which it passed for a distance of nearly a mile in length

TRUTH SO

The most influential Irish newspaper in the United States the New York Leader which has been strongly Democratic since its first establishment Chas Ingersoll's paper and its exponent of Democratic principles and Democratic measures has come out in favor of Grant and Colfax and against Seymour and Blair and Democratic platform and candidates Its last number contains an able and long article showing the folly of the Democratic party in nominating Seymour and Blair and the platform and principles of the party and also a long letter from Horace Greeley in favor of Grant and Colfax and against Seymour and Blair and the Democratic platform and principles

COMPLIMENTARY.—In calling attention to our announcement in to-day's OREGONIAN, of the closing meeting Wednesday we publish the following from Messrs Jernegan, Hammond & Cleveland, explaining itself

"NEW YORK, Sept. 22

"DEAR SIR OREGONIAN

"As the attorneys for the executors of the late Hiram Ward, banker of London, and a resident of New York are required by the Chancery Court of England to publish every month the accompanying advertisement in order that the will of the said Horatio Ward may be executed Mr Ward long ago left a bequest to the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Philadelphia and a further sum of $100,000 to be divided among other institutions for orphans by the war of the Union as should have been from time to time decided by the Executors of the State at the time of his death or within one year thereafter And as it appears that the several only shall be equal for each State that the bequest be not lost it is necessary that the persons who become of age within the next year in order to receive their shares that the objects of his bounty may receive their benefit therefrom which is their desire

"We are respectfully, JERNEGAN, HAMMOND & CLEVELAND
"Counsellors at Law, 157 Broadway, New York"

BRIEF ITEMS.—The planking of Pine street from Front to a point beyond Fourth street is now about ready for occupation We refer to Ladd & Tilton Holmes & Goe's and Read & Macleay's The last named gentleman has the finest block in the State We have been favored with a sight of the plans of the commercial edifice which the latter gentleman is erecting on the corner of Third and Taylor streets It is unique and will be a handsome structure when finished

The Lecture Dr Wythe's lecture last night was listened to by a large audience Much might be said in favor of free lectures and their objects in a general way of getting the leading men of Portland to lecture on important subjects but as it will be entertained by the Reminder in the course of the winter

STREET MATTERS Yesterday James Barnes commenced the work of clearing the sidewalks on the west side of Front street between Ash and Pine streets The protecting ordinance was passed by the Recorder in the summer

Legislative Matters We see at the Riverside Legislative meeting to-night there will be a good time made Speeches and resolutions are in order If you have not already done so, you should attend

Business has literally exploded upon us, and to such an extent that we are unable to do as many as usually are.

ASTORIA BOUND.—We learn that the Willamette steamer will leave Portland for Astoria at twelve o'clock to-day

Portland is now twelve miles west of Portland on the Tualatin plains, and has been entirely discharged by the fine weather of the last week Tremasters from Tualatin plains, Yamhill county, inform us that the road at the head of the Coast Fork, four miles west of Forest Grove, in the vicinity of the Bell Air tavern, is in a very bad condition, and it is highly probable that this road will be impassable for teams before the only way to reach Tualatin plains will be to go around by Salem Let us hope that this road will soon be repaired, so that the farmers can reach this market with their produce

DEMOCRATIC.—From the number of Democratic meetings announced for this city yesterday we should infer that the Democracy of Portland have determined to make a fight this year Democratic orators from abroad will be here to address the meetings, and we have no doubt that the meetings will be well attended

HARD AND CRUEL.—A fellow who had imbibed freely, and who had failed to find his way home when the police officers had failed to find, was seen very early this morning lying on the sidewalk, at the corner of Front and Washington streets at twelve o'clock last night He presented a pitiful appearance, and was the latest beat to-gravelly intoxicated A quantity of "pizen" he had taken, we found it, and it was a very cold one as we can testify

STREAMERS.—We notice that an unusual number of strangers are now in the city more than for one time in the last two years The hotels are filled and the streets present an appearance of activity and animation every day hundreds of persons are leaving for different parts of the valley and a great quantity of freight is daily shipped to different parts of the country

Impertinence.—Away with your impudence—you are afraid to speak as a political journal ought to and tell the people what is your real motive in the legislature, and entitled to no respect cherished by the Legislature.—Commercial

The writer of the above is evidently so much blinded by his prejudice for the West Side Railroad Company and his prejudice against the East Side that he is unable to see any difference between a desire to keep all strife from the State [illegible] and a fear to speak out plainly upon a question of right. We attribute that misguided zeal displayed by the Commercial in constantly harping upon a question which we naked asserted we entirely misapprehended they are by facts or logical arguments will not have the least weight in determining either than the editor's lack of sufficient knowledge to perceive that whatever [illegible] may say in this regard will have no effect as much [illegible] as he would have in trying to clear [illegible] fields of Oregon smoke by using a hand bell. The [illegible] deems it more consistent with the interests of the State to whose advancement it is devoted to [illegible] upon no great enterprise which by the encouragement of [illegible] will have a tendency to promote its welfare and prosperity, than to [illegible] such advancement. It is always ready to [illegible] out plainly when its facts are laid before it, but [illegible] a distinction between the advocacy of a principle of right and a truckling subserviency to the dictates of any company or corporation. We stated yesterday that the people are equally interested in both roads. The Commercial says this is untrue and that we know it. Now is there not as much country and as many people on the east side as on the west? Is there not as much necessity for a railroad on that as on this? Will not Oregon and Portland be benefitted by the creation of either? Then why is it untrue that the people have [illegible] to substantiate them. Produce your proof, the people will believe you and we will accept [illegible] as the present stage of the game. It is far from our intention to endeavor to damage the prospects of either [illegible] by both assertions that it is a corrupt and swindling concern. We rejoice in the prospect of a railroad up the valley, no matter whether on the east side or west side, and any company which proposes to forward this work will receive all legitimate encouragement at the hands of the [illegible]

Correspondence.—In calling attention to an advertisement in the Oregonian, under the head of "Information Wanted," we publish the following letter received from the Managers Hammond & Cleveland which explains itself:

NEW YORK Sept 22 1868

[illegible] Executors for the executors of the late Horatio Ward of London, and a native of New York, we are [illegible] by the Chancery Court of England to publish in your paper the accompanying advertisement in order that the will of the said Horatio Ward may be duly proved. Mr Ward bequeathed the sum of $100 000 to [illegible] Ward and Sailors' Home, in Washington [illegible] the sum of $100,000 to be divided among such [illegible] for orphans by the war for the restoration of the Union as should have been formed in the loyal States at the time of his death or should be formed within [illegible] A number of the will directs that [illegible] shall be used for some time but [illegible] as managed as to give orphans as they become of age a sum of money to fit him or her out in life [illegible] by extinguish the fund. Mr Ward died in 1867, and we ask you to call attention to these facts that the objects of his charitable bequest may receive the benefit there from which is their due

Yours truly,
JERNEGAN, HAMMOND & CLEVELAND
Managers, 157 Broadway N Y

Paving Square.—The planking of Pine street is finished from Front to a point beyond Fourth street. Three of the [illegible] stage in the city, all built this season are already for occupation. We refer to those of [illegible] Holmes & Goodenough and R. A. White—gentlemen has the largest structure of the kind in the State. We have been requested to call the attention of the City Council to the condition of the [illegible] at the corner of Third and Taylor streets. [illegible] will be repaired.—Nearly a runaway on Front street yesterday. A little more caution on the part of drivers with fast teams might save [illegible]. A dog belonging to E. M. Parsons swallowed—a dose of fish hooks, a large trout hook, and sea weed sinker. The dog is getting [illegible] on yesterday, drinking piece in the east. We are informed that [illegible] have generally learned of the failure to tax them heavily and that they [illegible] in regard to the matter.

Sprinkling.—On the south side of Stark street, between Front and First, is being torn up and will be [illegible] in the proper level. The health [illegible] very good, better in fact than usual at this [illegible] year.

Sprinkling.—During the early part of last summer [illegible] was seen driving his sprinkling cart up Front street, carrying an umbrella over him [illegible] from the falling rain. The street at [illegible] sprinkling just about as much as a man [illegible] wife. It rained every day or two [illegible] that he was universally [illegible] Sprinkling is a good thing in a street sprinkler, to [illegible] when the dry weather the dust is more than [illegible], notwithstanding the dust is more than it would carry it whirling into every store [illegible] and eye, the sprinkler aforesaid has [illegible] entirely of our own knowledge how much he made, nor how much it [illegible] his water cart, but we are told that the [illegible] a paying concern. Perhaps he made [illegible]. If so, some one else ought to [illegible] for there is quite a demand just [illegible] on Front street for some one [illegible]. The dust, as well as being quite [illegible] damaging effect upon goods on [illegible] many occasions.

Wilkins' Bridge.—We learn that the Wilkins' bridge [illegible] west of Portland on the Hillsboro road [illegible] destroyed by the fire raging in that vicinity. [illegible] from Tualatin Plains report large [illegible] of the Canyon four miles west of this [illegible] of the bridge over the deep gulch [illegible] probable that this bridge is also burned. The [illegible] Tualatin Plains is to go out over the [illegible] of Union school house, and the burning [illegible] this route somewhat dangerous.

Petitions.—From the number of petitions in circulation [illegible] yesterday we should judge the Legislature [illegible] to employ two or more additional clerks [illegible]. [illegible] there is a desire to bear [illegible] petitioners. We have an idea that but [illegible] will be produced by these petitions to the [illegible] that body seems to consider the question [illegible] by law in the case, and not by [illegible] or in furtherance of the plans of any [illegible] parties.

Grand Feat.—The "Grecian bend," which is the last and most popular freak of fashion [illegible] day morning. The ladies who go on this [illegible] ridiculously copying the attitude of the well known [illegible] so popular in negro minstrel [illegible] the door contortions, as they teeter along the [illegible] to blacken their faces and sing, Hi [illegible] Dodie on, and the shades of Dad Rice [illegible] would grieve jealous of new rivalry.

The [illegible] at the theater last night was [illegible] all did well and were highly appreciated [illegible] moral drama of the "Drunkard Saved," [illegible], and we [illegible] a full house. The Shipherd with great care, and we predict [illegible] will meet with enthusiastic [illegible]. There is witness one of the most affecting plays with [illegible] to it, and, by all [illegible], at [illegible].

Cars.—A fellow who had imbibed too [illegible] failed to find his way home, and [illegible] was had failed to find, was taking a [illegible] on the sidewalk, at the corner of Front [illegible] streets, at twelve o'clock last night. [illegible] unless its latent heat is greatly superior [illegible] quantity of "piscen" he had taken, that he [illegible] a very cold one as we [illegible].

We notice that an unusual number of [illegible] now in the city more than perhaps at any [illegible] the last two years. The hotels are all [illegible] streets present an appearance of activity [illegible]. In addition to every day boarders [illegible] from different parts of the valley, large [illegible] of produce and carry away a large [illegible] to supply merchants in the interior.

Lectures.—Dr Wythe's lecture last night was an [illegible] affair. Much might be said in commendation [illegible] of this course of lectures and their object, did [illegible]. No more useful way of spending an evening [illegible] by the young men of Portland who [illegible] information on important subjects [illegible] presented. All will be entertained and [illegible] attending them.

Coal.—The East Side Railroad Company received [illegible] lumber for their saw mill. It is of a large [illegible] to be employed in making steam to cut it [illegible]. The company seems to keep up appearances [illegible] for some time to come notwithstanding on [illegible] are in circulation that they have no intention [illegible] build a road.

Drunk.—James Banks—Yesterday James Banks [illegible] assault and battery on the person of J. B. [illegible] when the State threw the protecting aegis [illegible] was fined by the Recorder in the sum of ten [illegible].

Races.—To-morrow the races at the Riverside track [illegible] there is likely to be some good time made. It is [illegible] we like to see such things. If you races, have [illegible] and if you have fairs, have fairs.

Taxes.—Taxes levied for the improvement [illegible] Fourth street, between A and B streets, in [illegible] are in the City Treasurer's office. Property owners [illegible] liable, will take notice.

U. S. Court.—The United States District Court, Hon. [illegible] Deady, Judge presiding, will meet on Saturday [illegible] the U. S. Circuit Court will meet on Monday the 20th inst.

Will Sail.—The Active sails at 6 o'clock this morning [illegible] Victoria, and the Orient sails at 4 this afternoon [illegible] San Francisco.

Business Movements take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Portland that they will open to-day the second [illegible] of the latest styles of French Beavers fall [illegible]. Cassimeres to retail at wholesale prices [illegible] this city. Those desiring gents have a fine [illegible] to order should call on Bertram & Gibbons, 124 [illegible] stock. The Order of the Day.—A generation for Solomon! In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme doctrine of the age.

A man sent General Grant a bottle of Spalding's Glue a few days since. Query. Was it to mend his Meerschaum or cement friendship between himself and Butler?

From the Army Hospital the bloody battle-field; the mansion of the rich and the humble abode of the poor—from the cliff and the sacred dell, from the mountain top distant valley and far off Islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world is pouring in the evidence of the most astonishing cures of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following, may be seen at our office:

[illegible] I have been in the Army Hospital for fourteen months with the spectacles and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill. they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. Three bottles have made me well again. C H FLAGG.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851
STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of its consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Now withdraw buyers should be forewarned, and protect themselves against this practice.

Southern Opinion of Northern Men

Our w men are all c nservative m ral, rel g ous and sensitively m l st and abhor the N rth f r its infidel ty, g ss immorality, free l vousness, anarchy, and agrarianism Th y and the clergy who lead and d rect the dtanu w movement It is a gross m stake to suppose that Abol n sm alone is the c use of dissension between the N rth and the S uth The Cavaliers Jacks ns and Hugue s who settled the S uth nat rally hate, run mun and despise the Puritans who settled the N rth The form r are mas ter races the latter a slave race, an l descendants of the Saxon serf

We are the most aristocratic people in the world Pride of caste, and color, and privilege makes every man an aristocrat in fe ling Aristocracy is the only safeguard of liberty the only power wat hful and str ng enough to exclude in narchical despot sm At this North the pro gress and tendency f pinion is to pure dem c racy leas g v rnment anarchy and agrarian sm Military despotism is far preferable to Northern dem cracy, agrarianism infidelity, and free love

Our enemies the stupid sensual ignorant masses of the N rth, who are so foolish as they are deprived c uld n t read the signs of the times, did not dream of disunion, but rush l on as heedlessly as a greedy drove of hungry hogs, at the call of their owners They were promised bread, and were given a stone Our enemies were starving and disorganized The cold, naked hungry masses are at war with their leaders They are mute, paralyzed, panic stricken, and have no plan of act n for the future

Better a thousand t mes better, to come under the dominion of free negr es r if Gypsies, than of Yankees, or low Germans, or Canadians Gypsies and free negroes have many amiable noble, and gener us traits The Yankees, sour crout Germans whisky drinking Irish, and Canadians, have none Senator Wade says, and Sew ard too, that the North will absorb Canada They are half true, the vile sensual animal, brutal infidel, superstitious Democracy of Canada and the Yankee States will soulless, and Senator Johnson of Tennessee will j in them But when Canada and Western New York and New England, and the whole beastly Puritanic, "sour crout," free-negro, filthy, whisky drinking Irish, infidel, superstitious, licentious, Democratic population of the North become masters of New York—what then? Out of the ruin, the State of New York is Yankee and Puritanical, composed of as base, unprincipled superstitious fl gellous and agrarian and anarchist population as as any on earth Nay, we do not hesitate to say it is the vilest population on earth —Charleston Mercury

How a Chicago Physician Prescribed for a Maine Democrat —The Chicago Tribune relates the following

A gentleman of this city on a visit to Maine, just before the election, met an old friend busily canvassing the crowd in a railroad car After the usual greeting, he said "It seems to be an exciting time here, Dave, which party do you belong to?"

"I'm a Democrat, by ——," said Dave, "and we mean to carry the State"

"Ah! well, I m not much of a politician, but I believe Gov. Perry of South Carolina belongs to your party, doesn t he ?"

"He does," replied Dave.

"And Wade Hampton?"

"Yes."

"And Robert Toombs?"

"Yes."

"And Howell Cobb?"

"Yes."

"And Butcher Forrest?"

"Yes."

"So that is the kind of company you keep do you?" asked the Doctor.

Dave was suddenly seized with a desire for information as to the agricultural resources of the West.

Three days later—the day after the election—the doctor met another friend, who cried out:

"Look here, Doctor, you were too much for Dave"

"How so?" said the Doctor

"He took the matter into prayerful consideration, didn t like the crowd you put him into, and went yesterday and voted the straight Republican ticket through"

The Doctor is a homœopathist, but in politics, at least, he acknowledges that a large dose is a good prescription

The Last —Horace Greely has written for the New York Ledger the last article of a series entitled "Recollections of a Busy Life," and he concludes it thus

"My life has been busy and anxious, but not joyless. Whether it shall be prolonged few or more years, I am grateful that it has endured so long, and that it has abounded in opportunities for good not wholly unimproved, and in experiences of the nobler as well as the baser impulses of human nature. I have been spared to see the end of giant wrongs, which I once deemed invincible in this century, and to note the silent uprisings and growth of principles and influences which I hail as destined to root out some of the most flagrant and pervading evils that yet remain. I realize that each generation is destined to confront new and peculiar perils—to wrestle with temptations and seductions unknown to its predecessors, yet I trust that progress is a general law of our being, and that the ills and woes of the future shall be less crushing than those of the bloody and hateful past. So, looking calmly yet humbly, for that close of my mortal career, which cannot be far distant, I reverently thank God for the blessings vouchsafed me in the past and with an awe that is not fear, and a conscious sense of demerit which does not exclude hope, await the opening before my steps of the gates of the Eternal World"

A Good Democrat —Robert Ould, an influential supporter of Seymour and Blair—who, in fact, was a delegate from Virginia in the Democratic National Convention has recently revived the history of the exchange of prisoners, thus boasted in a letter to the notorious General Winder

"The arrangement I have made works largely in our favor We get rid of a set of miserable wretches and receive some of the best material I ever saw

These "miserable wretches" were our starved, diseased and emaciated Union prisoners, who had survived their long confinement The best material Ould ever saw were the Confederate soldiers who had been properly cared for in our military prisons

Greeley gives Gideon Welles the following thrust "We receive the afflicting news that the Hon Secretary of the Navy does not mean to vote for Grant, but, like his great commander the President, will cast his ballot for Blair and Seymour The mournful announcement, however was not wholly unexpected True as the needle to the pole has Mr Welles always been to the cardinal principle of his career namely to think just what the President thinks It is told of Mr Lincoln that he used to congratulate himself that whatever differences might arise in his cabinet, he could always make sure of the support of the member from Connecticut

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONS'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR SAVING MACHINE which has already been adopted in nearly every Agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been presented, has been brought to Portland by

who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines and to sell county rights to manufacture the same

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same from being used for a wing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team Instead of walking and carrying the heavy sack, and then walking and dragging his grain in

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines and has happily succeeded in this invention, in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky sows wheat barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the same can be sown by hand and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind covers the grain and the seed is safe Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone on any nothing if its saving in seed—in sowing consequently but few acres, and we have placed an improper estimate upon the extent of our Oregon farms—if the machine is not generally adopted in this State, as it has already (read) in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner

Lincoln, (Placer Co) Sept —, 68

Mr. H. A. Castor—Dear Sir, I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I exchange the State to feed for sowing grain I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do I have sowed and gauged them perfectly T C HUMINGTON

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C Hopkins corner of Front and Morrison streets in this city or—Sheriffs or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates

EXTINGUISHER

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows

Every fire begins on a small scale and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay is combining it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman

It is portable, and as easily handled as a basket of water

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline, and combustible materials now in common use.
